

Boards to which the 8 function switch/lights are soldered.
They are daisy-chained using FFC flexible flat cables with 1mm conductor spacing.
The switch and light lines are "rotated" as they pass through each board, so the controller can address each board individually from one end of the daisy chain, yet all the boards are identical.